

Demo test. Free form exercise. Page 4.

Questions 21-30 on the Automatic slide show feature (ASSF).

Setting the Automatic slide show feature

Select the frame from which the automated presentation should start, and click 'Timeline'.
Start with step 1, and set the order of events by clicking buttons and entering numbers (for delay in seconds). But first, read carefully the Help notes please!

Total number of frames Unfold steps of selected frame
Selected frame Selected step

Timeline

If a 'seconds' box is empty, a default value is used.

List item	Page	Table Row	Unfold step	Frame
After 5 sec.	After 10 sec.	After sec.	After 10 sec.	After sec.
Items left 3	Pages left 4	Rows left	Steps left 0	Frames left 16

Delete the settings of the selected frame Keep the settings of the selected frame

Delete Video Exercise Web Save

After sec. After sec. After sec.

Help Back

21. Which of the following events that can be triggered with the ASSF?

- A) next page
- B) play audio
- C) next frame
- D) show webpage

22. Which of the following are correct event list abbreviations?

- A) i = next list item
- B) u = next Unfold step
- C) t = next table row
- D) e = show exercise

23. Setting the time delay for an event: if an 'After ... sec.' text box is left empty ...
A) a default value will be used. B) nothing will be added to the events list.

24. When creating the events list, you may skip a list item, an Unfold step, etc., but not a frame. True or false? (T/F)

25. By clicking 'Delete', the events list of all frames is lost. (T/F)

26. The 'A' button in the control panel is visible only if the ASSF is activated. (T/F)

27. You start and stop the Automatic slide show by clicking the 'A' button. (T/F)

28. The slide show will stop automatically when a 'v', 'e', or '...' event is triggered.

At Frame 5, Unfold step 2, you do an exercise. After you see your results and you click 'Back', you will return to ...

29. Frame ... (enter a digit)

30. Unfold step ... (enter a digit)

For other Free form test questions, please open pages 1, 2, and 3!